Learning Objectives:
HIST 1110 satisfies one of Kennesaw State University’s general education program requirements. It addresses the Social Sciences general education learning outcome(s). The learning outcome states: Students analyze the complexity of human behavior and how social, historical, economic, political, or spatial relationships develop, persist, or change. Required Reading:
ISBN-10: 0-495-90227-6

Attendance Policy:
Class attendance is required. All absences need to be approved by the instructor, in advance, unless of an emergency nature. Emergency absences need to be validated in some manner. A student’s attendance record may be taken into account by the instructor when calculating final grades.

It will be the student’s responsibility to keep up to date with what is going on in class. Each student will be responsible for class discussions and all announcements regarding assignments, class schedule, etc.
Electronic Devices Policy:

Though I recognized the growing importance computers play in everyday life, no electronic devices, except voice recorders, are allowed in the classroom. This includes laptop computers, iPods, cell phones, etc. These devices have shown themselves to be sources of distraction and disruption of class time.

Course Assessments/Assignments:

Each student's grade will be based upon four parts:

- Exams:

  There will be four exams this semester. These will be online in D2L and consist of multiple choice questions. You will have a designated day to complete the exam and a limited amount to finish once you start.

- Reading Assessments:

  There will be a series of reading assignments to be completed online. They will consist of multiple-choice quizzes designed to walk students through all applicable chapters. A Reading Assignment Due Dates Schedule will be posted online in which all due dates will be clearly noted. All reading assignments are due at the beginning of class on their referenced due date. The purpose of these assignments is to get you familiar with the material we will discuss in class before we discuss it.

- Argumentative Exam:

  You will be asked to research a topic of your choice and then defend a conclusion to which you come about some historical meaning or significance your research revealed.

- Geography Assignment:

  For each continent covered this semester, students will identify the location of list items related to the countries of that continent as well as selective landmarks (rivers, oceans, seas, mountains, regions, etc). Answers will be submitted via both Countries and Landmarks Submission lists for each continent. We will go over this in class on more than one occasion. These assignments will be due the last class day of the semester.
Grading:

Grade Calculations

The final grade will be based upon the following formula:

Exams: 50%
Essay: 25%
Reading Assessments: 15%
Geographical Assignment: 10%

Extra Credit:

I do not offer extra credit opportunities. These are not found in real life experiences, so I choose not to deviate from this reality in my classes. It is the responsibility of each student to monitor the progress of his/her grade and to contact the instructor if concerns begin to develop. I will be glad to work with any student in any way that I can to help them improve their grade.

Makeup Work:

Since all assignment due dates are clearly posted, no makeup work will be allowed, excluding extenuating circumstances which may qualify the student for makeup work based solely on the instructor’s discretion. I will drop the lowest grade for both Reading and Geography Assignments at the end of the semester.

Students will be allowed to make up any missed exam solely at the discretion of the instructor based on extenuating circumstances only. If approved, you will have one week from the scheduled exam date to make it up.

Grading Scale

Students are evaluated on the following scale:

A – 90-100
B – 80 - 89
C – 70 - 79
D – 60 - 69
F – Below 60

I—Indicates an incomplete grade for the course, and will be awarded only when the student has done satisfactory work up to the last two weeks of the semester, but for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the course. Incomplete grades are only valid after submission of the Incomplete Grade form (signed by both the instructor and student) to the Department Chair’s office.
Academic Honesty:
The high quality of education at Kennesaw State University is reflected in the credits and degrees its students earn. The protection of high standards of academic integrity is crucial since the validity and equity of the University's grades and degrees depend upon it.

No student shall receive, attempt to receive, knowingly give or attempt to give unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any work required to be submitted for credit (including examinations, laboratory reports, essays, themes, term papers, etc.). Unless specifically authorized, the presence and/or use of electronic devices during an examination, quiz, or other class assignment is considered cheating. Engaging in any behavior which a professor prohibits as academic misconduct in the syllabus or in class discussion is cheating. When direct quotations are used, they should be indicated, and when the ideas, theories, data, figures, graphs, programs, electronic based information or illustrations of someone other than the student are incorporated into a paper or used in a project, they should be duly acknowledged. No student may submit the same, or substantially the same, paper or other assignment for credit in more than one class without the prior permission of the current professor(s).

Students suspected of violating the KSU statement of Academic Honesty will meet with the instructor to discuss the violation AND will be reported to the Department of Student Conduct according to the process outlined at the following link: https://web.kennesaw.edu/scai/content/scai-misconduct-procedures

Any student discovered plagiarizing another’s work, whether that be another student or some other source outside our student population, will receive a failing grade for that assignment and be subject to removal from the class. See the following websites for examples of plagiarism:
