Electronic Communications. The University provides all KSU students with an “official” email account with the address “students.kennesaw.edu.” As a result of federal laws protecting educational information and other data, this is the sole email account you should use to communicate with your instructor or other University officials.

Course Description:
An overview of world history that provides an introduction to the origin and development of the world’s societies and their political, cultural, and economic traditions.

Learning Objectives:

HIST 1100 satisfies one of Kennesaw State University’s general education program requirements. It addresses the SOCIAL SCIENCES general education learning outcome(s). The learning outcome states: Students analyze the complexity of human behavior and how social, historical, economic, political, or spatial relationships develop, persist, or change. For more information about KSU’s General Education program requirements and associated learning outcomes, please visit http://catalog.kennesaw.edu/preview_program.php?catoid=24&poid=2668

Required Reading:

Attendance Policy:
Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status in a class; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal.

Electronic Devices Policy: While use of laptops is permitted in this class, it is restricted to note taking. Phones and other devices should be hidden away. No electronics are permitted in the classroom during examinations.
Course Assessments/Assignments:
A. A quiz will be given during the last 15 minutes of most Wednesdays on the material covered during the week, with the first quiz given on September 16.
B. A final exam is given on the scheduled final exam day.
C. Each of the Weds quizzes will be valued at 5 points of the class grade. There are ten quizzes, thus will make up 50% of the total grade. Make up for missed quizzes will be a 4-page essay based on the textbook.
D. Class PP Presentations will be valued at 20% of the grade. Each presentation should be a ten minute max time period. In order to receive an A grade for the presentation, there must be an introduction and conclusion that addresses class themes, and the PP presentation should consist of photos and maps but very little text. Students will stay and answer questions from the class and professor for an additional 5 or so minutes.
E. The Final Exam will be valued at 30%. The final exam will consist of M/CH, identification, and essay.

Makeup Exams and Late Assignments: Makeup are allowed with legitimate excuses such as inclement weather or documented medical or family emergencies. Weddings and vacations of any kind are not considered legitimate

The Department will host a day for makeup exams for students with excused absences at the end of each semester. Students will need to bring an ID to the makeup exam. For Fall Semester 2015 makeups will be proctored Friday 4 December from 1-4 pm SO 2036.

Grading and Grade Calculations: See above for more detail. Quizzes = 50%, Presentation = 20%, and Final = 30%

Grading Scale
Students are evaluated on the following scale:
A - (90 – 100)
B - (80 - 89)
C - (70-79)
D - (60-69)
F - (0-59)

I—Indicates an incomplete grade for the course, and will be awarded only when the student has done satisfactory work up to the last two weeks of the semester, but for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the course. Incomplete grades are only valid after submission of the Incomplete Grade form (signed by both the instructor and student) to the Department Chair’s office.

Academic Integrity Statement Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university’s policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an “informal” resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct’s minimum one semester suspension requirement. ADA Compliance:

Students with qualifying disabilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act who require “reasonable accommodation(s)” to complete the course may request those from Office of Student Disability Services. Students requiring such accommodations are required to work with the University’s Office of Student Disability Services rather than engaging in this discussion with individual faculty members or academic departments. If, after reviewing the course syllabus, a student anticipates or should have anticipated a need for accommodation, he or she must submit documentation requesting an accommodation and permitting time for a determination prior to submitting assignments or taking course quizzes or exams. Students may not request retroactive accommodation for needs that were or should have been foreseeable. Students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. Student Disability Services is located in the Carmichael Student Center in Suite 267. Please visit the Student Disabilities Services website at www.kennesaw.edu/stu_dev/sds for more information, or call the office at 470-578-6443.
