Electronic Communications. The University provides all KSU students with an “official” email account with the address “students.kennesaw.edu.” As a result of federal laws protecting educational information and other data, this is the sole email account you should use to communicate with your instructor or other University officials.

Course Description: This course is a survey of world history from early modern times to the present. The course examines themes, events, trends, institutions, and ideas with a focus on global connections and interactions.

Learning Objectives: HIST 1112 satisfies one of Kennesaw State University’s general education program requirements. It addresses the SOCIAL SCIENCES general education learning outcome(s). The learning outcome states: Students analyze the complexity of human behavior and how social, historical, economic, political, or spatial relationships develop, persist, or change. For more information about KSU’s General Education program requirements and associated learning outcomes, please visit http://catalog.kennesaw.edu/preview_program.php?catoid=24&poid=2668

Required Reading:
Attendance Policy: Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status in a class; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal.

Electronic Devices Policy:
NO Cell Phones—please turn them off. NO tablets - please turn them off. Any disruptions caused in class by the use of electronic devices (cell phones, laptops, tablets, etc.) will result in the student’s immediate dismissal from the room. Laptop users please sit in the rear of the classroom. All laptops are to be turned off during video presentations. Use of cell phones, tablets or laptops during an exam is FORBIDDEN and will result in an automatic 0 on the assignment, without a chance of a make-up.

Course Assessments/Assignments: This course will consist of preparatory textbook readings, video viewings, lecture materials and in-class discussions. We will meet twice a week (Tuesdays and Thursdays). Each student is expected to keep up with assigned textbook readings, video viewings, lecture notes and in-class discussions. Grades will be based on two (2) pop quizzes, three (3) examinations and a primary source essay writing assignment.

Makeup Exams and Late Assignments:
You have 24 hours (1 day) from the date of a missed exam to notify the instructor of your absence and provide a valid, written MEDICAL or LEGAL excuse in order to get permission to take a make-up. If you fail to notify the instructor during this 24 hour time window then no make-up exam will be offered, regardless of the excuse presented.

There are no make-ups for pop quizzes, regardless of the excuse.

Extra Credit Policy: There is no extra credit in this class.

Grading:

POP QUIZZES:
There will be two (2) unannounced, timed pop quizzes during the semester, each worth 5% of your final grade. They will be based off your lecture notes and each will consist of ten (10) objective questions. You will only have 15 minutes to complete this quiz in class. No make-ups for missed pop quizzes.

EXAMS:
There will be three (3) timed examinations during the semester, all based on the lecture notes, video viewing, textbook readings and in-class discussions. The first exam will be worth 20% of your final grade. The second and third exams will each be worth 30% of your final grade. Each exam will consist of two (2) parts.

The first part of the exam will cover your textbook readings. You will complete the “Textbook Readings” portion first, within a 30 minute time window. The first part of the exam will consist of 10 short answer questions and you are allowed to use your textbook as a resource. No sharing of textbooks permitted.
The second part of the exam will cover your lecture notes and the instructional videos you have watched. You will begin the second part of the exam, consisting of 35 objective questions, after you have completed the “Textbook Readings” portion first. You will have 45 minutes to complete the second part of the exam in class. No textbook and no notes are allowed on the second portion of the exam.

You must show up on time to begin your examination on designated test days. Students will not be granted a time extension if they appear late to class on test day, regardless of the reason. For example, if you come in 10 minutes late on exam day then you will only have 20 minutes to complete the first part of the exam instead of the normal 30 minutes. There will be NO EXCEPTIONS to this policy.

You have 24 hours (1 day) from the date of a missed exam to notify the instructor of your absence and provide a valid MEDICAL excuse in order to get permission to take a make-up. If you fail to notify the instructor during this 24 hour time window then no make-up exam will be offered, regardless of the excuse presented.

PRIMARY SOURCE ESSAY WRITING ASSIGNMENT:
You will be required to complete an original essay this semester based off your understanding and interpretation of two (2) primary source materials provided to you by the instructor. This essay comprises 10% of your final course grade.

Please read the file “Primary Source Essay Assignment Guidelines” posted on D2L for detailed instructions on how to complete this essay. Also, the assignment itself is posted on D2L under the file “Primary Source Essay Assignment”. You are not allowed to choose your own essay topic.

There will be NO make-ups or late submissions accepted for the Primary Source Writing Assignment. All papers are due by Monday November 16, 2015 during class. Please print them out before turning them in to the instructor.

Students committing plagiarism will receive an automatic F (0 points) on the essay assignment and may be referred to the Department of Student Conduct for disciplinary action.

Each of your assignments in this course will be calculated on a 100 point scale. See below.

Grading Scale
Students are evaluated on the following scale:
- A - (90-100 points); B - (80-89 points); C - (70-79 points); D - (60-69 points); F - (0-59 points)
- I—Indicates an incomplete grade for the course, and will be awarded only when the student has done satisfactory work up to the last two weeks of the semester, but for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the course.
- Incomplete grades are only valid after submission of the Incomplete Grade form (signed by both the instructor and student) to the Department Chair’s office.

Academic Integrity Statement:
Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university’s policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an “informal” resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct’s minimum one semester suspension requirement. See also https://web.kennesaw.edu/scai/content/ksu-student-code-conduct.

Students committing plagiarism will receive an automatic F (0 points) on the essay assignment and may be referred to the Department of Student Conduct for disciplinary action.

ADA Compliance:

Students with qualifying disabilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act who require “reasonable accommodation(s)” to complete the course may request those from Office of Student Disability Services. Students requiring such accommodations are required to work with the University’s Office of Student Disability Services rather than engaging in this discussion with individual faculty members or academic departments. If, after reviewing the course syllabus, a student anticipates or should have anticipated a need for accommodation, he or she must submit documentation requesting an accommodation and permitting time for a determination prior to submitting assignments or taking course quizzes or exams. Students may not request retroactive accommodation for needs that were or should have been foreseeable. Students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. Student Disability Services is located in the Carmichael Student Center in Suite 267. Please visit the Student Disabilities Services website at www.kennesaw.edu/stu_dev/sds for more information, or call the office at 470-578-6443.

Course Content Disclaimer: In this course, students may be required to read about and discuss controversial topics on issues of violence, sexuality, politics, religion, racism, etc. Course materials are selected for their scientific, historical, stylistic, and cultural relevance, and are meant to be examined within the context of intellectual inquiry characteristic of learning at the college level. As such, this content will always be dealt with in a mature, honest, and constructive manner. By continuing in this course, you are agreeing to be held academically accountable for all required materials in the syllabus, regardless of their potentially sensitive nature.

Course Schedule:

Withdraw Deadline: The last day to withdraw without academic penalty is Wednesday October 7, 2015.
