Instructor: Dr. Jennifer W. Dickey
Office: SO 4130
Office Hours: Tue. and Thu. from 9:00-12:00 and by appointment
Office Phone: 678-797-2295    Cell Phone: 706-266-0603

Course Communication: Students should contact me by e-mail at the above address with any questions or to make an appointment for discussion related to academic standing in the course. DO NOT e-mail me through D2L.
Students should use the cell phone number only in instances when delayed or lost en route to a field trip.

The University provides all KSU students with an “official” e-mail account with the address “students.kennesaw.edu.” As a result of federal laws protecting educational information and other data, this is the sole e-mail account you should use to communicate with your instructor or other University officials.

Changes to the course schedule or any announcements from the professor will be sent to your KSU student email account as well as posted in the “News” on D2L. Students are responsible for checking their email and D2L for such announcements, especially in the event of inclement weather.

Course description: The course exposes students to how Americans think about the past, as well as its commemoration and public presentation. Special focus will be placed on the ways in which historians transfer their writing, research, and analytical skills to professions outside of academia. Major subfields and professions within public history are examined as are the current issues and controversies within the field. The class will combine lectures by the instructor and guest lecturers, in-class discussion, case studies, readings, and field trips to achieve the goals specified below.

Course Goals: At the completion of this course you should be able to demonstrate an understanding of the following:

• the major forms of public history
• the origins and evolution of public history as a profession and the variety of careers in the field
• the main principles and current issues of public history
• how historiographical trends are reflected through public history
• the problems and issues associated with implementing public history projects and programs
• the place of public history in discussions of the contested past
• the concepts of “shared authority” and “ownership” of the past
• problems of objectivity and “truth” in public history
• the role of public and private memory in shaping interpretations of the past

Required Readings: (available at the campus bookstore or at www.amazon.com)

Horton, James Oliver and Lois Horton. Slavery and Public History: The Tough Stuff of American Memory. New

Swigger, Jessie. History is Bunk: Assembling the Past at Henry Ford’s Greenfield Village. Univ. of Massachusetts

Additional readings and handouts as assigned

Attendance & Participation: Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal. You are expected to attend class and to participate in class discussions. We will be working in groups throughout the semester, so it is important that you arrive at class on time and that you be prepared to contribute to your group’s work. You are expected to ask questions, contribute to class discussions, and be engaged in what is going on in the classroom. If you miss one day of class, you have missed the equivalent of an entire week. Your final grade will drop 10 points for each unexcused absence. If you are sick or need to miss class for any reason, you should alert the professor in advance by e-mail. If an absence is deemed justifiable, you will be given an opportunity to make up the work. Participation counts for 10 percent of your grade, so be prepared and speak up.

Electronic Devices Policy: You may bring a laptop to class. Cellphones are not allowed in class. You will have no occasion to use your cellphone during class—no reason to text, send email or check Facebook, Twitter, or the box scores. Put your cellphone away during the time that you are in the classroom or on a field trip.

Student Disability Services: Students with qualifying disabilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act who require “reasonable accommodation(s)” to complete the course may request those from Office of Student Disability Services. Students requiring such accommodations are required to work with the University’s Office of Student Disability Services rather than engaging in this discussion with individual faculty members or academic departments. If, after reviewing the course syllabus, a student anticipates or should have anticipated a need for accommodation, he or she must submit documentation requesting an accommodation and permitting time for a determination prior to submitting assignments or taking course quizzes or exams. Students may not request retroactive accommodation for needs that were or should have been foreseeable. Students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. Student Disability Services is located in the Carmichael Student Center in Suite 267. Please visit the Student Disabilities Services website at www.kennesaw.edu/stu_dev/sds for more information, or call the office at 470-578-6443.

Academic Honesty: The high quality of education at Kennesaw State University is reflected in the credits and degrees its students earn. The protection of high standards of academic integrity is crucial since the validity and equity of the University's grades and degrees depend upon it.

Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university’s policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an “informal” resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct’s minimum one semester suspension requirement. See also https://web.kennesaw.edu/scai/content/ksu-student-code-conduct.

Students suspected of violating the KSU statement of Academic Honesty will meet with the instructor to discuss the violation AND will be reported to the Department of Student Conduct according to the process outlined at the following link: https://web.kennesaw.edu/scai/content/scai-misconduct-procedures. Violations will result in a failing grade on the assignment, and possibly failure of the course.

For more information on what constitutes plagiarism, see the following websites:

Writing Center: The KSU Writing Center is a free service offered to all KSU students. Experienced, friendly writing assistants work with you throughout the writing process on concerns such as topic development, revision, research, documentation, grammar, and mechanics. Rather than edit your paper for you, writing assistants will help you learn strategies to become a better writer on your own. For more information or to make an appointment (appointments are strongly encouraged), visit http://www.kennesaw.edu/english/WritingCenter or stop by Room 242 in the English Building.

Field trips: We will be taking several field trips throughout the semester to broaden your understanding of how various organizations and institutions present history to the public. You are expected to show up on time, take notes, and ask questions as appropriate. Field trips represent a great opportunity for you to get to know public history professionals and for you to begin to understand how the lessons you have learned in the classroom apply in the real world.

Assignments: (see details below)

- Group Presentations
- MALU Exhibit Review
- Greenfield Village Paper
- Historic Site Project

Group Presentations: You will be assigned to a group with which you will deliver PowerPoint presentations to the class based on assigned readings. Presentations should be no longer than 10 minutes.

For the presentation on Ken Burns’s “Civil War,” you should introduce the class to the author of your article, explain the author’s thesis, and explain how the author supports his or her thesis.

For the presentation based on readings from Slavery and Public History, your group should identify and give basic background information on the author of the chapter followed by an explanation of how slavery is interpreted or not interpreted at the historic site under discussion. You should include images of the site in your presentation.

While not every member of each group has to speak during each presentation, every member should speak during at least one of the group presentations throughout the semester. You may divide up the work however you choose, but each member is expected to read the assignments and contribute to the group presentation, either by speaking or by putting together the PowerPoint. Presentations should be no longer than ten minutes. A discussion board will be set up for each group on D2L, and each group must post a copy of each presentation into their group folder under Assignments on D2L before the class period in which they deliver the presentation. Your group should use the D2L discussion board for sharing files and carrying out online discussions about the presentation. You will be given an opportunity to evaluate your contribution to the group presentations as well as the contribution of each member of your group.

All presentations should be no longer than 10 minutes! Be considerate of your classmates and abide by this time limit. You should have no more than five slides in a 10-minute presentation, so be focused and concise! Most importantly, practice your presentation in advance.

Exhibit Review: You will write a short review (750-1000 words) of the exhibitions visited by the class at the Martin Luther King National Historic Site. The papers should include a brief history of the site and a critical review of the site. You will use the Framework for Assessing Excellence, posted on D2L, to help you assess the exhibitions. The completed Framework should be submitted along with your paper. See the attached page on Exhibit/Historic Site Reviews for more information. Examples of reviews are posted on D2L and can be found in issues of The Public Historian or in The Journal of American History. Assignments will be graded on content and composition. For documenting your sources, you should follow The Chicago Manual of Style using the humanities style guidelines, which are available online at (http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html).

Greenfield Village Paper: You will write a short paper (750-1000 words) on the significance of Greenfield Village in the fields of public history and historic preservation based on Jessie Swigger’s History is Bunk: Assembling the Past at Henry Ford’s Greenfield Village and your assessment of Greenfield Village through the site’s website (https://www.thehenryford.org/visit/greenfield-village/) Your paper should draw heavily on Swigger’s history of Greenfield Village, but it should also include your assessment of what you can glean about Greenfield Village as a public history site from exploring the website. You should address the following questions:

- How did Henry Ford’s view of the world shape the creation of Greenfield Village?
How did the public respond?
How has Greenfield Village evolved and responded to societal and cultural changes?

You should also choose a section of Greenfield Village (e.g., Main Street, Edison at Work, Porches & Parlors) as a focal point to discuss issues of authenticity, historic context, and power of place.

Historic-Site Project: You will be required to select a historic site that you will visit outside of class and on which you must prepare a report and presentation regarding the interpretation of the site. You must identify the subject for your project by the date listed on the attached schedule, and you must submit your proposal to the professor in writing on that date. Your proposal should include the name of the site, why it is worth investigating, and a bibliography. The bibliography should include at least three sources, at least one of which is not a web-based source. DO NOT use Wikipedia as a source. Wikipedia is not a reliable source. The New Georgia Encyclopedia (NGE at http://www.georgiaencyclopedia.org/) is a reliable online source, and many of the sites on the list will have related entries in the NGE. Use it as a source and as a resource for other bibliographical information.

You are required to do research about the site, not merely speculate about the “truthiness” of its message. Your final report, which should be no longer than 5 pages plus a bibliography, must be submitted on October 1. You will be required to give a short presentation (6-8 minutes) on your site to the class. Your presentation should include a PowerPoint with photographs of the site, your research findings, a history of the creation of the site, and an assessment of the message. For documenting your sources (bibliography and footnotes), you should follow The Chicago Manual of Style using the humanities style guidelines, which are available online at (http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html). A hard copy of The Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed., which is a useful resource for all your questions regarding grammar and punctuation, is available at the Sturgis Library. Your paper will be graded on composition and content.

Grading:
- Scale: 90-100=A, 80-89=B, 70-79=C, 60-69=D, 0-59=F
- Participation 10%
- Group presentations 20%
- Exhibit Review 20%
- Greenfield Village Paper 20%
- Historic-Site Project 30%

Exhibit/Historic Site Reviews

You will be required to write exhibition reviews during the semester following our field trip to the Martin Luther King NHS and your individual field excursion to the historic site or museum that you select for your final project. The reviews should be 3-4 pages (750-1000 words, 12-pt. Times New Roman). The review should provide an analysis of the exhibitions in terms of organization, design, themes, execution, and issues. As you walk through the exhibitions, use the Framework for Assessing Excellence Form that is posted on D2L to help you organize your observations. You will be expected to turn in the Assessment Form along with your paper.

You should use Chicago Manual of Style (hard copy available in the library, citation style quick guide available online at http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html) and include footnotes as appropriate.

Your review should address the following questions:

- What is the mission of the institutions that host the exhibits?
- Do the exhibits support that mission? If so, how? If not, why not?
- How is the theme of the exhibition conveyed through the objects, design, and, if appropriate, subsidiary text?
- What kind of bias or perspective does the exhibition have?
- Is the organization of the exhibition logical?
- Was the exhibition well researched and presented in an appealing fashion?
- What was emphasized or omitted and what impact does that have on the visitor?
- How does the design shape the visitor’s understanding or experience?
- What did the interpretive team do well? What areas could have been improved?

A few tips:

- DO NOT USE FIRST PERSON!
- Analyze; do not summarize. The summary of what you saw should be condensed to a short paragraph—just enough to allow the reader to understand what the exhibition or site was about.
- Read sample reviews in the Journal of American History or the Public Historian.
- Do not mention every artifact or tidbit of information that was conveyed to you. Be selective. Talk about highlights and lowlights.
- Provide concrete evidence to support your argument and assertions.
- Do not feel that you have to organize your paper to mimic the layout of the exhibition or tour.
- Use the Framework for Assessing Excellence Form to guide your review.

Tech Specs:

- Paper should be Times New Roman, 12 pt font, double spaced.
- Include the title and your name in the upper left corner.
- Include page numbers in the lower right corner.
- Use standard MS Word margins (1-inch top and bottom margins, 1.25-inch left and right margins).
- Indent the first line of each paragraph one-half inch (this is the standard if you select first line indentation under paragraph formatting in Word).
- DO NOT triple or quadruple space between paragraphs.
- Use the Chicago Manual of Style for all citations.
Mission Statements and further instructions

It is important that you incorporate into your exhibit reviews some reference to the mission of the organizations that are hosting the exhibitions. Below are the mission statements of the sites that we will be visiting as a group.

Martin Luther King Historic District Exhibition Review – “Courage to Lead” and “Dr. and Mrs. King”

The review should provide an analysis of the two main exhibitions at the site in terms of organization, design, themes, execution, and issues. The first exhibition is the “Courage to Lead” exhibition in the NPS Visitors Center. The second exhibition you should assess is the exhibition honoring Dr. and Mrs. King on the second floor of Freedom Hall. As you walk through the exhibitions, use the Framework for Assessing Excellence Form that is posted on D2L to help you organize your observations. You will be expected to turn in the Assessment Form along with your paper.

Organizations in the Martin Luther King Historic District

The King Center serves as the premier resource dedicated to educating a global network of allied individuals and organizations working collectively using the philosophy and methods of nonviolence to create the Beloved Community that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. envisioned.

Martin Luther King National Historic Site – http://www.nps.gov/malu/index.htm
The mission of the Martin Luther King, Jr., National Historic Site as established by the park’s enabling legislation is to preserve, protect and interpret for the benefit, inspiration and education of present and future generations the places where Martin Luther King, Jr., was born, where he lived, worked, and worshiped, and where he is buried, while also interpreting the life experiences and significance of one of the most influential African Americans in the 20th century.
