BOOKS
THE AMERICAN PROMISE, VOLUME II: FROM 1865
James L. Roark, Michael P. Johnson, Patricia Cline Cohen, et. al.

MATERIALS
"Study Guides", "Guides to Movies", and maps – course postings or hand-outs from the instructor.

ASSIGNMENTS
The schedule is designed to cover all or most of Chapter 31, and then Chapters 20 through 30 in your book (skipping chapter 26). Please try to keep up with your reading. In the course there will be six 30-point quizzes, of which you may drop the lowest score for a total of 150 points. There will also be a final exam worth 70 points. The quizzes and final examination will have multiple choice questions, covering classroom topics and the book Chapter 31, and Chapters 20 through 30 (skipping chapter 26), study guides, guides to movies, and maps.

TESTS
There will be a 70-point final examination, covering the text book, the study and movie guides, and maps. All questions on the final will be taken from previous quiz questions if the exam is comprehensive, or from material that has not been previously covered in the quizzes.

QUIZZES
There will be six 30-point quizzes covering chapter readings, “Study Guides,” “Guides to Movies”, and maps. You may drop your lowest quiz grade for computing your final grade. Quizzes missed for good cause are to be made up. Please do not assume that I will allow you to make up a quiz. The general rule is that make ups are to be arranged BEFORE the quiz is given. There may also be one or two “Mini-quizzes” at the beginning of the semester, and at least one “Micro-quiz”. This will depend on time constraints, since we already do considerable testing. Procedures, point values, and actual questions for these extra will be discussed if, and when, they are given.

ABSENCE
Students who miss more than five class sessions will not pass the course. Except for truly exceptional circumstances, absences will not be excused. “I have a doctor’s excuse for illness” is acceptable; “I had to take a friend (or brother or mother) to the airport” is not.
Students should attend all sessions of the class from beginning to end. Students who arrive late or leave early will be counted present at the discretion of the instructor. As noted above, STUDENTS WHO MISS MORE THAN FIVE CLASS SESSIONS WILL NOT PASS THE COURSE.

Cell phones and similar devices should be turned off and put away during class. Please do not use them during class time. Laptop computers are allowed for coursework only; other laptop uses can be distracting to other students (and at times to the instructor as well). Students should not study for other classes during ours.

THE COURSE
A lot has happened in American History from 1890 until the present. The United States has gone from an emerging but second-rate power, to the world’s super power. There are lots of facts associated with this development, and lots of wars. However, unless we are born historians, it is probably necessary to go beyond mere historical fact, mere narrative, and try to conceptualize modern American History. The United States has become an empire that affects the lives of everyone on earth. There have been other empires in world history, such as the Roman and British empires. In the instructor’s opinion they decline when their people ceased playing a very active part in the imperial course, or were misled by many years of bad politicians. Is that what is happening to the U.S.? Or, has real, participatory democracy re-emerged in the United States; with the election of a person from a minority race to the Presidency -- the majority of whose fellow Afro-Americans could not even vote when he was born? Or, has more Democracy just recently emerged with the latest Conservative Grass Roots (or Astroturf) revival in the form of the “Tea Party”? One way is to study the progress of American History from 1890 until now.

GRADING
There will be five 30 point quizzes (one will be dropped), for a total of 150 points, and a 70 point final exam, for a total or 220 points in the course. Ordinarily, there is no extra credit in the course. The grading scale will be 100 and 90s - A; 80’s - B; 70’s - C; 60’s - D; below 60% - F.

CIVILITY
Please raise your hand to participate in class discussions, because “talking out” is disruptive and disrespectful of your fellow students. Speaking of talking; do your interpersonal communicating outside of class. The instructor reserves the right to move the seats of repeatedly disruptive students, or even to temporarily remove them from the class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
I hope for, and expect, student honesty. Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct as published in the Undergraduate and graduate catalogs as follows: No student shall receive, attempt to receive, knowingly give or attempt to give unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any work required to be submitted for credit (including examinations, laboratory reports, essays, themes, term papers, etc.). Unless specifically authorized, the presence and/or use of electronic devices during an examination, quiz, or other class assignment is considered cheating. Engaging in any behavior which a professor prohibits as academic misconduct in the syllabus or in class discussion is cheating. When direct quotations are used, they should be indicated, and when the ideas, theories, data, figures, graphs, programs, electronic based information or illustrations of someone other than the student are incorporated into a paper or used in a project, they should be duly acknowledged. No student may submit the same, or substantially the same, paper or other assignment for credit in more than one class without the prior permission of the current professor(s).
