This course examines the major themes of American history since 1890. Topics of focus will be:

- Strivings to fulfill the historical promise of equality and democracy, as exemplified by the civil rights, women’s, and other movements.
- Significant periods of political and social change such as the Progressive Era, New Deal, 1960s and 1970s, and the rise of the New Right.
- U.S. involvement in foreign affairs from the War of 1898 through the world wars, Cold War, and post-9/11 conflicts.

History 2112 is part of KSU’s general education program, which has five overall goals:

- Develop productive habits of mind
- Develop effective communication skills
- Expand knowledge and understanding…
- Expand creative capabilities
- Exhibit understanding of the impact of ethical and aesthetic values

Exams: You are responsible for ALL COURSE MATERIAL. Although exams will emphasize topics covered in class lectures, exams will cover all course materials including course readings, lectures, slides, and films. DIGEST THE READING, COME TO CLASS, TAKE NOTES ON LECTURES AND FILMS, AND YOU WILL SUCCEED IN THIS CLASS.

I expect you to participate and be an active, not passive, learner. After all, that is why we are all here. You should be prepared for me to call on you to ask questions about the reading, current events, or anything else that might be related to American history since 1890. A good way to participate is to come prepared to make a particular comment or ask a specific question.

Tardiness and early departures: Please be considerate of the instructor and other students by arriving to class on time and waiting until class is over before gathering up books and materials to leave. If you know you will be late or will have to leave early, you must notify the instructor in advance. Any time you are not in class the entire time will be considered an absence.

Extra credit work will not be available.

Please do not eat food during lectures unless you bring enough for everyone. Drinks are OK—just open them before we start.

Students with Disabilities:
If a student has a disability that requires accommodation, please notify the professor as soon as possible and provide the necessary documentation from disAbled Student Support Services. Students with questions or concerns should contact:

Carol Pope, Assistant Director
Student Center, Suite 267
770-423-6443
cpope@kennesaw.edu

Electronics:

Cell phones must be turned off before entering the classroom. Students who repeatedly fail to turn off their cell phones are introducing unnecessary distractions to the classroom, and showing a lack of respect for classmates, the professor, and their own decisions to spend tuition money on this class. I do not just mean turn off the ringer. I mean off completely. If I see you texting in class, I will count you absent for the day.

Laptops: Since non-class related use of laptops creates a distraction for other students, you are permitted to use laptops for taking class notes only. If I see that your eye contact is constantly on your laptop, I will assume you are doing non-class related things on it and I will count you absent for the day.
Writing Center:
Students may seek assistance on written assignments including grammar and proper citation of sources at the Writing Center.

The ESL Study and Tutorial Center:
ESL students may seek assistance from professionally trained staff in the ESL Study and Tutorial Center.
