SUMMER SEMESTER 2009
Professor Alan LeBaron

HISTORY 1101 / 06
MW 2 pm to 4:45 pm
SO 3029

Objectives: Develop “memories” from the thousands of years that occurred before our individual existence, by studying and discussing the major themes and the universal questions of human life. You will learn about the field of world history, and the global connections that have long tied the people of the earth together.

Textbook: CONNECTIONS: A WORLD HISTORY by Edward H Judge and John W Langdon

Grades: A= 90 to 100, B= 81 to 89, C= 71 to 80, D= 60 to 70.

Exams will be daily, with the first few days being practice exams. Starting June 15, each day will have graded exams. Exams will be combination of multiple choice and essay. Exams will fall on 12 days between June 15 and July 22. Your grade for the daily essays will be the best ten grades out of the twelve. The final exam is valued at 25% of your grade, the daily grades will be 75%.

Office: SO 4116  Office hours on Tuesday by appointment or after class.
Phone: 770-423-6589
alebaron@kennesaw.edu

READING SCHEDULE

For the first practice exam on June 10: chapters one, two, and three

June 15: Chapt 4
June 17: Chapt 6