Course Description:
This course will examine how the United States emerged from a divisive and destructive civil war and painful reconstruction to become one of history’s most important empires with its own unique social and political institutions. The course will analyze how American society and political culture developed and responded to both internal and external challenges during the twentieth century. In order to encourage familiarity with a broad range of historical approaches, it is necessary to cover aspects of social, political, economic, diplomatic, and military history.

Course Goals:
In addition to acquiring the basic information described above, students will learn basic principles of historical thinking, including how to analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources, how to develop ideas based on historical evidence, and how to communicate those ideas effectively.

Expectations:
Success in this course requires regular attendance, prompt completion of all reading assignments, active class participation, and a solid effort on all exams and writing assignments. Students are responsible for all of the assigned readings whether or not the material is covered in class.

Attendance:

Attendance is mandatory and will be taken daily. Accordingly, it will taken into consideration when computing final grades. To be considered “present” for class, students must be in class for at least half of the class period. Each student will be allowed 4 (four) absences during the semester without penalty. For every absence beyond 4 (four), 2 (two) points will be deducted from the student’s final grade. There are no “excused” absences. For students who achieve perfect attendance, however, 2 (two) points will be added to their final grade.

Late / Makeup Work:

- Exams—Makeup exams will be taken during the regularly scheduled December 3 class. Students who took the mid-term exam do not need to attend this class.
- Writing Assignments—1 (One) letter grade will be deducted from the student’s grade for each day an assignment is late. This includes weekends and holidays.
- Class Quizzes—Students missing a daily quiz will receive a 0 (Zero); but the 2 lowest quiz scores will be “dropped.”

Academic Honesty:

Read the section on this subject in the student handbook. It is expected that all submitted work be completed by the student, prepared without outside assistance or collaboration. Plagiarism is easier to spot than students may realize. University rules require faculty to report suspected cases of plagiarism to the administration, and being found guilty of this offense can result in severe penalties, including expulsion. In addition, students guilty of plagiarism will automatically fail the course. Cheating on exams in any form, including providing answers or information to other students, will also result in a course failure.
The following websites may help you avoid committing plagiarism:

- University of North Carolina
- University of Indiana
- Northwestern University
- Turnitin

Students with Disabilities:
If a student has a disability that requires accommodation, please notify the professor as soon as possible and provide the necessary documentation from disAbled Student Support Services. Students with questions or concerns should contact:

Carol Pope, Assistant Director
Student Center, Suite 267
770-423-6443
cpope@kennesaw.edu

Electronics:
Cell phones, pagers, etc. must be turned off before entering the classroom. Any student whose phone or pager sounds during class will be asked to leave the room immediately. Repeated violations may result in the offender being banned from the classroom.

Since non-class related use of laptops can create a distraction for other students, laptops are strictly prohibited.

Issues and Concerns:
Students having difficulty with this course, such as understanding the readings or lectures, speaking in discussion, or personal issues that may affect performance, should immediately consult with the professor.

Overrides:
Only the Chair of the History Department (Dr. Howard Shealy) may approve the override of the section enrollment cap. Please be directed to the department website where an electronic Override Request Form may be filed.

Incomplete (I) Policy:
A student may be awarded an (I) only if,
- the student has done satisfactory work (C or above) up to the last two weeks of the semester, and
- the student is able to meet the full requirements of the course for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control (such as serious illness or injury).

Withdrawal Policy:
Students wishing to withdraw from this course must do so via Owl Express. Students who simply stop attending classes will be assigned a failing grade (F).

Writing Center:
Students may seek assistance on written assignments including grammar and proper citation of sources at the Writing Center.

The ESL Study and Tutorial Center:
ESL students may seek assistance from professionally trained staff in the ESL Study and Tutorial Center.

Horace W. Sturgis Library:
The Sturgis Library is a student’s most useful resource when conducting research. GALILEO is an essential resource tool. Through GALILEO, students will have access to a number of databases and online journals, such as JSTOR, Project Muse, ProQuest, Lexus-Nexus, WorldCat, etc.

One of the easiest ways to locate a book is to click on “FIND A BOOK” from the library website, and choose “WORLDCAT.” If the KSU library owns the book, it will indicate as such. If not, students can open the citation, and click on “REQUEST INTERLIBRARY LOAN.” A new window or tab will open and ask you to logon to ILLiad. Students will be notified via e-mail once the book arrives, usually within a week or two.

If this is not soon enough, students can request to receive it via GIL Express. These books usually arrive within 24-72 hours.

You may also request journals, newspapers, magazines, etc. through ILLiad.

School Closings Due to Inclement Weather:
Students can check the University status by visiting the KSU website and clicking on “Campus Advisory” on the left side of the home page. Please note that if school has been officially closed, all assignments that were due on that date must be submitted at the beginning of the next scheduled class (this includes exams).

Waiver:
This syllabus is merely a guide to this course and is subject to change.

Communication / Updates / Changes:
All communications, especially those concerning class/syllabus updates or changes will be made via WebCT and your official KSU e-mail. Students are strongly urged to check these daily.
